The Journal of Law and Biosciences: Call for Graduate Student Submissions

The Petrie-Flom Center for Health Law Policy, Biotechnology, and Bioethics at Harvard Law School collaborates with Stanford and Duke Universities to publish The Journal of Law and Biosciences (Oxford University Press), an online, open-access, peer-reviewed journal. JLB includes a New Developments section, comprised of brief summaries and commentary on recent legislation, regulation, and case law written by graduate students at the collaborating schools. The Petrie-Flom Center is responsible for providing the New Developments for one issue per annual volume, and is currently seeking Harvard graduate students to contribute for JLB’s Volume 2, Issue 2 (2015).

Topic proposals are due November 30, 2014. Please see here for additional details.

NEW WEBSITE: The Football Players Health Study at Harvard University

We are pleased to announce that a new website has been launched for The Football Players Health Study at Harvard University. Take a look to learn more about the project, the study team, and what we have in store with the goal of improving the health and wellbeing of professional football players. You can also find out more about the Petrie-Flom Center’s involvement, in particular our Law and Ethics Initiative, here.
