Announcing the Project on Advanced Care and Health Policy

The Petrie-Flom Center for Health Law Policy, Biotechnology, and Bioethics at Harvard Law School and the Coalition to Transform Advanced Care (C-TAC) are pleased to announce a new collaboration, The Project on Advanced Care and Health Policy.

This initiative seeks to study and foster development of improved models of care for individuals with serious advanced illness nearing end-of-life, and to apply interdisciplinary analysis to important health law and policy issues raised by the adoption of new person-centered approaches to care for this growing population. It includes a Senior Fellowship, public symposia and events, and policy and research projects.

The Project is led by I. Glenn Cohen, Faculty Director of the Petrie-Flom Center and Professor at Harvard Law School; Holly Fernandez Lynch, Executive Director of the Petrie-Flom Center and Faculty at Harvard Medical School's Center for Bioethics; Tom Koutsoumpas, Co-Founder and Co-Chair of C-TAC; and Mark Sterling, Chief Strategy Officer at C-TAC.

The spring semester workshops include:

April 4: Nicolas P. Terry, Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law
Paper now available for download!
